Half the Work in Half the Time

EVERY woman owes a part of each day to the service of the nation, and the easiest way to get that extra time is by getting the Hoosier Cabinet and doing kitchen work in half the time.

The Hoosier is more than merely storage space—it is a labor-saving machine scientifically planned to save you miles of steps and hours of drudgery.

Its Partitionless Work-Space is the roomiest made. Don't forget that, because there is where falls 90 per cent of your work.

Before We Run Short

come in and see the new Hoosier "Beauty." Our allotment is limited and freight congestion may keep you from getting any more soon. By ordering now you can have your cabinet delivered for a small part payment—balance as convenient.

Alfred Poulen left this morning for Pittsford, where he is making an extended stay with friends.

The regular meeting of the I. O. L. O. U. will be held in K. of C. hall Friday evening at 7 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Whitney and Mrs. Fifield have returned to their home in Bethel, after visiting friends in the city.

Deputy Game Warden Charles Keith of North Seminary street was called to Middlesex this morning to make an investigation.

Miss Sarah Hathaway of Connecticut is making a visit of a few days at the home of her father, F. D. Hathaway, of Allen street.

Frank Donahue has returned to his home in Middlebury, after passing a few days with Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Kempton of South Main street.

Swedish Order Vasa will hold a regular meeting next Saturday night. All members are requested to attend, as important business is to come before the meeting. Per order president.

Dewey park was the scene of a picnic yesterday in which members of the Athena club participated. Around 20 women made up the party and before the outing ended an enjoyable basket lunch was served.

Reginald Johnson, a former employee at the Homer Pitts store, expects to return this evening from Boston, where he is employed as a clerk at the State House buildings, after spending a vacation of the past week in the city.

Mrs. Fred Bird, who was called to Barre by the death of Miss Agnes A. Keith of North Seminary street, returned today to her home in Waterbury, Conn., accompanied by Mrs. Charles Keith, who will remain as her guest until after Labor day.

Miss Annie McCarthy of Claremont, N. H., is passing a vacation with her mother, Mrs. Mary McCarthy of Summer street. Miss Mary McCarthy, who is attending the training school for nurses in Hoston hospital, has been passing a few days at home.

Fred A. Howland of Montpelier, president of the National Life Insurance Co., will speak on the City park Sunday evening at 6 o'clock before the union service.

Mr. Howland is an interesting and convincing speaker and will, no doubt, be heard by a large audience.

Rev. Thomas Laite of Lowell, Mass., a former pastor of the People's Evangelical church in Montpelier, is passing a vacation with Barre friends. Rev. Mr. Laite is to remain in Washington county for a fortnight and during his stay he will conduct services in the People's church and elsewhere.

F. T. Cutler of North Main street, the well known monument setter, returned last night from Hartford, Conn., where he had charge of setting a large private memorial. The monument was cut out of Barre granite by a local manufacturing firm. Before he left Hartford, another family, after looking over the memorial he had erected, placed an order for a Barre granite monument.

City Atty. William W. Lusk accompanied N. D. Phelps of this city, State Auditor Ben Gates, Walter F. Scott and W. Russell of Montpelier to Newport yesterday to attend the funeral of former Governor George H. Prouty. Many prominent men from all sections of the state were present at the obsequies. The eulogy was given by President John M. Thomas of Middlebury college.

A Spanish butcher who was leading a cow up South Main street last evening was thrown heavily to the pavement in a moment when the bovine, by its refractory actions, became hard to manage. The butcher lost his balance and when he slipped and fell heavily to the flagging it was to his apparently insensible for several moments. Verandas were quickly emptied of their occupants and the short time the butcher was revived. He was able to proceed with the cow.

The Hospital Aid association will hold their annual flower day on Saturday, Aug. 24, for the benefit of the Barre City hospital. All wishing to donate flowers will kindly leave them at the Red Cross headquarters in the war chest rooms. The committee will be present to take them after 9 a. m. Saturday.

Donors who have no means of delivery please call 302-V and their flowers will be gladly called for. Flowers will be for sale in the war chest rooms, and anyone overlooked can get them there.

A piece of hardware from the far flung western front is attracting more than passing curiosity on North Main street. It is a German helmet and it is exhibited in the south display window at the Daylight store. Corp. George Booth of the 101st ammunition train picked up the helmet in France and sent it to his father, George Booth of Cherry street. The helmet differs radically from the metal top piece worn by the American and other allied soldiers. Several of a similar edition, taken by Vermont boys, have been sent home and are on exhibition in various towns about the state.

Young men of Barre who have attained their majority since June 5, when the last quota of eligible registrants came forward, must register to-morrow. As on former occasions, City Clerk James Mackay is the chief registrant, and registrations will be held in the council chamber at city hall. The chief registrar will be present from 7 a. m. until 9 p. m. No estimate has been made as to the possible aggregate of youths who have become 21 since June 5, but it is not expected that the number will be large. In June, when the first registration in a year was held, upward of 60 registrants appeared.

So far as the physical change is concerned, the freight departments of the Montpelier & Wells River and the Central Vermont railroads have been consolidated, and all business is now transacted in the old M. & W. R. passenger station in Depot square. Carpenters had full access to the ground floor of the building for several days and then the two freight office corps began to move. There is not too much space in the lower story of the station, but with the removal of the ticket office the floor has been very conveniently disposed. The business entrance to the office is through the southeast door, leading from Depot square. The second story is reserved for the business management of the Barre & Chelsea railroad.

Notice. On and after Sept. 1, 1918, the fee for graduate nurses from the nurses' register will be $25 per week, with no charges for laundry. This is to conform with registers in other parts of the state, the change having been made in Burlington June 1. Owing to the great demand for nurses in the war zones it is very difficult for registers to secure nurses for private duty.

Nurses' Register, 61 Elm St., City.

A large number of Barre people attended one of the most enjoyable of a series of open-air concerts, which have been given during the summer months by the Montpelier military band at the Pavilion hotel in the Capital city last evening. The band was much applauded for its efforts during the evening's concert. After the concert a dance, held at the armory, was largely attended by a number of Barre people, Chatfield's orchestra furnishing the music for the occasion.

Mrs. L. H. Thurston of North Main street has received from the city clerk the following resolution, recently adopted by the Barre city council: "Whereas, God in his all wise providence has seen fit to remove from our midst ex-Mayor Lucius H. Thurston; Be it resolved, that in his death the city of Barre has lost one of its most patriotic and public-spirited citizens; a man who gave generously of his time to improve the public welfare. In all his public service he was honorable, conscientious and unswerving in the path of duty; he was an inspiration to his co-workers, and his record of public service should inspire those who come after him that public office is a public trust and worthy of the best service they can give. Be it further resolved, that these resolutions be spread on the city records, and a copy sent to his widow and family."
